Saturday 12 - 6pm

On the 13th of April 2023 ACRE opens its doors for the first time to the public with its inaugural exhibition BOOKS & OTHERS.

Located at 54b Skalitzer Straße, a 2000m long street in the district of Kreuzberg, ACRE is housed in what was once a Kekse and Süßwaren shop where traces of its previous use can be seen in its window display. Dedicated to artistic experimentation, ACRE hosts a studio residency programme for artistic research and practice and invited the British/German artist Rahel Zoller to activate the space.

For the opening of BOOKS & OTHERS two dinners were hosted by Zoller, inviting Berlin based artists and publishers dedicated to the book as an independent art form. A place where strangers met and where stories were shared. Each guest brought a book of their choosing to talk about. Forming the beginning of a library of ACRE and displayed in the space at BOOKS & OTHERS. The books are arranged on ceramic book supports that have been created for the exhibition by Katharina Siegel and Rahel Zoller, juxtaposing a book dummy "Bookstand" with illustrations from the Library Bureau 1891, which will be released at Miss Read later this year.

For BOOKS & OTHERS a special artist edition of placemats was printed with Office Offset for ACRE alongside a postcard "Sweet Greetings from Berlin Kreuzberg" from the sweet shops of the neighborhood.

Rahel Zoller lives and works in London as Artist and Book Arts and Design specialist and Educator. She studied at Goldsmiths and University of the Arts London and since October 2015 has been a member of ABC - Artists' Books Cooperative. Her work subverts, embraces, and interrogates the form of the book itself and draws on its surroundings as inspiration. Zoller is embedding materiality into practice and playfully unstitches our concept of what a book is. Her works have been published and exhibited internationally and are held in a number of collections such as the MoMA Artists' Books collection in New York, Artists' Books Tate Library Collection, MACBA in Barcelona, Spain et.al.
